]	Know your needs and who/what would be best
	Have you checked the parish calendar for any potential conflicts? If this is a significant adult faith formation event, is it possible to clear the calendar of other meetings, so that all parishioners are free to participate in this faith-growth opportunity?
	Collaborate with other committees in the parish/cluster. This provides opportunities for programs to enhance one another.
	What do you need for this gathering? A speaker, a facilitator, a panel of speakers?
	Are your expectations that this person will teach, inspire, train, or help the participants reach a particular decision/outcome?
	\Box What will the participants expect? What are their interests, hopes, questions, and concerns?
	Who has the experience, expertise, presentation style that your parish needs right now for this event?
	Given who you have had in the past, who would be best now – to give a different perspective, perhaps?
]	Invite your selected speaker/facilitator
	Let him/her know all the marvelous reasons why you chose him/her.
	\Box Thoroughly explain the expectations and details for this gathering and his/her role:
	\Box the purpose and objectives of the meeting and/or presentation
	\Box the topic and length of his/her presentation, as well as the format and process
	\Box the name(s) of other presenter(s) and their topic(s), if applicable
	the anticipated number of participants
	Discuss travel and housing arrangements
	☐ Inquire about their stipend and/or explain your remuneration policy, including the time of payment
	Give her/him background on the parish and who the participants will be

A biographical sketch (to be used for the introduction)
Handout materials
Meeting room set-up
All audio-visual, technology, and other needs for the gathering
Permission to audio or video record, if applicable
Confirm the invitation/agreement in writing
 A biographical sketch (to be used for the introduction) Handout materials Meeting room set-up All audio-visual, technology, and other needs for the gathering Permission to audio or video record, if applicable Confirm the invitation/agreement in writing State the date, time, location (along with directions), title and topic, length of presentation, and stipend State the date, time, location (along with directions), title and topic, length of presentation, and stipend Send copies of brochures and other promotional materials to the speaker as soon as they are available Marketing and Publicity It has been said, in today's multi-media, technological world, that people need to see/hear things 24 times before they start paying attention to it. Thus, marketing/publicity is critically important. It doesn't mean doing the exact same thing, in exactly the same way 24 times. It could mean: Creating various creative ways of saying the same information Using various methods Targeting different groups with messages related to what it means for them Try some of these methods: Parish websites Bulletins and newsletters
Send copies of brochures and other promotional materials to the speaker as soon as they are available
☐ Marketing and Publicity
It has been said, in today's multi-media, technological world, that people need to see/hear things 24 times before they start paying attention to it. Thus, marketing/publicity is critically important.
It doesn't mean doing the exact same thing, in exactly the same way 24 times. It could mean:
Creating various creative ways of saying the same information
Using various methods
Targeting different groups with messages related to what it means for them
Try some of these methods:
Parish websites
Regional and diocesan websites
Bulletins and newsletters
Newspapers (local, diocesan)
□ Word of mouth
Personal invite
□ Bring a friend
Pulpit announcements
Posters
□ Radio and TV
Brochures and fliers
Facebook and Twitter
Parish Blog

F

	unicate near the event to check that everything is in place
	Share cell phone numbers with each other
	Double-check on audio-visual, technology, and other needs for the gathering
	Double-check on handouts needed
	Give specific directions: which building, room name, door to enter, etc.
Introd	uction of the speaker
	Prepare an introduction that will ready the participants for the event and help them to "get to know" the speaker, not just the facts on their vitae, but their interests and pursuits.
	Verify your introduction with the speaker before using it.
Set-Up	prior to the arrival of the speaker and participants
	Welcoming and clear signs as soon as people enter the parish property
	The temperature is not too warm or cold
	The lighting is sufficient for easy reading
	A microphone is in place and checked for efficiency
	Seating arrangements are such that everyone can see without straining
	Check restrooms for cleanliness and all needed supplies
	Room set-up as the speaker/facilitated requested
	All A-V, technology equipment requested in place, plugged in and tested
	Visual aids are well done and large enough to be seen easily
	An area to hang coats
	A prayer/focal area set up
	Tables covered; water and cups on the tables
Other	Hospitality Necessities
	Refreshments attractively presented
	Remember the non-coffee drinkers
	Remember those who are diabetic
	Hospitable Greeters as soon as people enter the building and meeting space
	A welcoming registration/check-in area staffed by friendly parishioners
	Depending upon the event, have background music playing as people gather
	Provide and plan for the differing learning styles of the participants
	See:
	 Multiple Intelligences Description of Multiple Intelligences Multiple Intelligences for Adult Education

 Multiple Intelligences Methods Learning Styles Various Learning Styles Learning Styles from Ageless Learner
Beginning of the gathering
Start on time
Warmly, enthusiastically welcome all
Thank the committee, all who worked/are working to bring this gathering/opportunity to fruition
Graciously welcome/introduce the presenter
During the gathering The Adult Faith Formation Coordinator, staff, and Adult Faith Formation Committee/Team remain, participating in the gathering, being available to the participants and the facilitator for any needs which might surface.
Ending of the gathering
End on time
Thank the presenter, briefly summarizing how their message will effect/help people in the future
Thank people for their attendance and participation
Ask people to fill out the evaluation; their ideas are counted for future planning
Let people know that they will also be receiving an evaluation within the week via email – if they would rather fill it out this way or they have additional ideas/thoughts
After the gathering
Write a thank you note to the presenter/facilitator, letting him/her know how much you and the people appreciated her/his presence and all that was given.
Convey your thanks to the committee and all those who contributed to the success of this event.
Email an evaluation to all the participants. If you use www.surveymonkey.com all the compilation will be done for you.
Place photos of the gathering in your Sunday bulletin and on your website accompanied by comments from the evaluation.
After you – and the Adult Faith Formation Committee have had time to analyze the evaluations, place a summary of them in the Sunday bulletin and on the parish website indicating changes and additions, etc. you will be making in future programs, because of their suggestions. An illustration that people have been listened to goes a long way!
Janet Schaeffler, OP www.janetschaeffler.com